TENSION OF THE MONEY MARKET

Somewhat Relaxed Yesterday but Still Depressing.

NEW YORK DEMAND FOR GOLD

Fortunately the Great European Banks Are in Good Position to Meet It. Bong Market Duli and Irregular In Sympathy With Stocks.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—The tension of the money market was somewhat relaxed to-day and slocks responded with strangelim the money situation was demanded by the subsidence of the activity in the market, the volume of dearings railing below haif a million snares responded with strangelim to the money situation was demanded by the subsidence of the activity in the market, the volume of dearings railing below haif a million snares responded with stranger and was demanded by the subsidence of the activity in the market, the volume of dearings railing below haif a million snares restricted by the decrease of the activity of gold in transit from South Africa to London had been secured for New York. This failed to reassure sentiment immediately, and prices of stocks declined and Nashville, Reading, Norfolk and Western and Wabsah fell a point or over when an opening money rate of 12 per cent. was an opening money rate of 12 per cent. was sever general, and the Gould group, the Wisconsin Central stocks, Amalgamated Copper and some of the undependent steel companies well-different and some of the independent steel companies well-different and some of the independent steel companies well-different and some of the independent steel companies well-different and the condition of the arrival at San Francisco Coerassure for the steeling exchange in response to the gold engagement and discount rates hardened with London and Berlin 20. CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO, ILL., Sept. 16.—Grain trade to-day was irregular. In the main, conditions were against prices. The fine weather brought about natural selling in both corn and wheat, with some activity on the bulges. Doubt over frost damage, however, and the possibility that the Northwest would use much of its wheat instead of moving it, helped to retard declines. The nearby options could not stand under the selling as well as the later futures, and in the end September wheat closed %c. lower; December wheat 4c. down; September corn %c. off: December \(\frac{1}{4}\) december \(\fr

LYNCHBURG TOBACCO MARKET. Lynchburg, Va., Sept. 16, 1902. Receipts of tobacco in the warehouses of the city are very light, the offerings being principally in primings, the quality of which has not been satisfactory. Prices for common grades rule high. For the better grades prices have shown a slight decline.

Tobacco in Virginia This Year is Good in Quantity and Quality.

CORN CUTTING PROGRESSING

All But Late Crops Are Matured, and Yield Will Be Good-Rain Abundant in Eastern Part of the State. Dry in the Valley.

GENERAL SITUATION. Considerable rain fell during the week covered by this report over the Tidewater counties and the eastern portion of the Middle division, but in western portion of the Middle the division and generally over the Valley counties the precipitation was light, and in some localities lacking. The temperatures in the forepart of the week were, on the whole, moderate and fa-vorable for crop growth, but in the latter half the weather became cool, and the advance of vegetation was checked some what. Generally the crop season con-tinues its advance toward maturity without serious hindrance, except in those portions of the Valley section where drought has prevailed for some time past.

in the counties of Montgomery, Pulaski, Rockingham, Scott and Wythe, and portions of Shenandoah and Page, corn has suffered severely, pasturage is scanty and but little advance has been made in and but little advance has been made in preparation for fall seeding. Eisewhere in the State work is up with the season. The bulk of the fodder has been saved, and a large quantity of peavine hay made. Rains have improved pastures. The crop of peanuts is excellent, and potatoes, both sweet and second crop of Irish, are coming on nicely. Fall fallowing progressing, and in some localities the seeding of winter wheat, oats, and clover is well under way. Where showers ciover is well under way. Where showers have occurred the land is in fine order for fall work.

GOOD CORN CROP.

CORN cutting and shocking is well along and the yield is generally reported to be good. The yield of fodder has been large, and it was saved in good condition. The crop is now practically made. There are some very late fields that remain to mautre, but they are well grown and vigorous, and will soon be beyond damage. TOBACCO cutting, housing and curing continue in all countries growing the continue in all counties growing the staple. The improvement noted in previ-ous bulletins continues, and the crop now being gathered is a good one in respect to both quantity and quality. Reports of irregular fields are still received from some localities, but the cutting of the more forward plants, and the rapid growth of all replantings, will soon rem-edy this. Some correspondents report that the present season has been the best in years for maturing the crop, and that the quality of the plant is fine. No fur-ther reports of damage from horn worms in Cumberland county have been received. POTATOES—The sweet potato crop is about made, and is a good one in all respects. The second crop of Irish potatoes continues to advance favorably.

FRUIT—The general condition of the crop remains unchanged. Continued dropping of apples has prevailed throughout the season, and there is no doubt that the yield will be short. Many correspondents report their crop almost a fallure. Late peaches are also rotting some. Pears are abundant and of fine quality.
